

The Covenant

Covenant: An agreement between two parties

When I was asking God what I should write in the monthly newsletter, He said to get my people ready for when I come back. No one knows the hour or the day when He will be back, but He wants us all ready for when He does come back. I ask you today, are you ready for the return of the Great Messiah?

I titled this “The Covenant” because it is important to know Who you belong to and the agreement that we make when we dedicate our lives to Christ. But, it’s also important to know the agreement that the Heavenly Father made when He gave His only begotten Son, so that we could have life more abundantly. Let’s think about that. God loved us so much that He allowed His son (Himself), to be crucified for all of us. Jesus was whipped beyond recognition and the chastisement of our peace was upon Him. He was bruised for our iniquities. As if that wasn’t enough, He went to hell for 3 days and came up with the keys to free us from sicknesses, diseases and any other type of bondage that the devil puts us in. He is so good that He even covers us from the bondage that we put ourselves in.

People that have eyes can see that the world is coming to an end sooner than we think. The unemployment rate is at an all time high. More people are dying from diseases and sicknesses. The economy is suffering. The gas prices are making it impossible for some people to go to work, let alone work for minimum wages. In one particular city, cops are being killed like second-class citizens. In other words you see the end coming. We even have people questioning if God is a person who exists and questioning if He was the first person to be raised from the dead. My theory on that is even if He wasn’t, He was the first person that was raised with ALL power in His hands! This last year alone I have heard about different scrolls and different codes, such as the Davinci Code. What does any code really prove? I have a code for my alarm. If I don’t turn it on when I leave, someone can come in and rob me. My point is that the only code we need is the code to be called a child of God. That code is simply: God I accept you in my life and ask for forgiveness of my sins and I will follow You wherever You lead me. That confession unlocks a lot of things. That is your breakthrough to enter into His house, when He finally calls for us.

When we establish a covenant with God, it can’t be broken. You can chose to go the other way, but when you repent, He is always there waiting for you with opened arms. Once you confess your sins to Him you are forgiven immediately. I caution you, that when you confess your sins to man, they don’t forget or sometimes even forgive. I tell people all the time, man can’t save me, so I don’t need to confess to man about anything. God forgives and forgets. He already knows what we are going to do before we do it because He is all Knowing. I know some of you are thinking that if He already knows, why doesn’t He stop us? My answer to that is that God gives us choices. Either we make the right one or the wrong one. If we make the wrong choice, His death made it possible for us to go to Him and repent and be forgiven. However, I would caution you not to deliberately make mistakes knowing that God will help you every time. There will be a time when He will show you tough love and have you make a decision either to serve Him or the devil. You can't serve two masters.

I ask you now, who will you make a covenant with, the world or the Heavenly Father? With God you have life more abundantly. With the enemy you have it for a season only to have your life snatched from you. Some make the mistake of treating their money and worldly possessions as their gods. Money doesn't buy you a ticket into Heaven. It doesn't even buy you healing as some of the famous have learned to realize.

I encourage, no, I beg all of you who have not accepted Jesus Christ in your life, to do so today. I want you to identify with God, but most of all I want Him to identify with you. It would be sad to leave earth, only to die and to hear the Master say He never knew you. Make that decision today! Confess Jesus as your Lord and Savior. Piddy can't save you. TDJakes can't save you. Only God can! So make the decision and confess to God about your sins. He's the Deliverer!

For those who are already saved, it doesn't hurt to remember the agreement you made with Him. I challenge all of you today to try and speak to that person that has questions about God. Don't enter into a debate, but tell them about your God. Always remember, its hard to disciple someone when you are living a double life. That is food for thought for the Christians, another topic in itself.

Promises of God:

Nehemiah 9:31

Yet in Your great mercies You did not utterly consume them or forsake them, for You are a gracious and merciful God. (AMP)

Psalm 9:10

And they who know Your name [who have experience and acquaintance with Your mercy] will lean on and confidently put their trust in You, for You, Lord, have not forsaken those who seek (inquire of and for) You [on the authority of God's Word and the right of their necessity]. (AMP)

Deuteronomy 19:8

And if the LORD thy God enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers;

Genesis 15:18

On the same day the Lord made a covenant (promise, pledge) with Abram, saying, To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river Euphrates--the land of. (AMP)

Deuteronomy 26:18

And the Lord has declared this day that you are His peculiar people as He promised you, and you are to keep all His commandments;

Now Heavenly Father, I pray for understanding of the reading of the words that you have dropped in my spirit. God, I ask that You cover us all as we do your work. I ask that you minister to those that are being confused by the different doctrines. Let them know God that You are the only true and living God. I ask that You will have mercy on all of us, for we are not perfect. I pray that the lost will come to you and that those you have sent out to spread the gospel, will not be blind sided by the enemy. I thank You that Your angels keep watch over all of us day and night. In Your Holy and Unmoveable name. Amen!

Note: This is supposed to be a monthly newsletter. However, I will write as the Heavenly Father directs me to and will have the articles archived for future references.

God Bless
